

Experiences in public transport

Hello. Ahm...I'm waiting for the bus. I think the bus has a bit of a delay. It's like...I don't have...I don't have a clock but... It has about 5 minutes to 10 minutes delay. Yeah, well but I need the public transport. So...I just go on waiting. It should come very soon. You know, on the other side it's really worth it going by public transport here. It's very cheap, very economic, just not that expensive like going by taxi or going by...your own car for example. It's like...the tickets are really cheap and although the bus is mostly really crowded, it's always quite funny. I meet a lot of people, the bus drivers are really funny and really friendly. And you always get where you want to go. So I prefer the public transport. Oh, I think there comes the bus. So...see you soon, bye.
