As I told you before, I am working as a teacher. I think there are certain requirements, certain talents or capacities you should have. You should like to spend time with the people. You also should like to teach something to other people. You also should enjoy spending time with people and correcting them. You can meet a lot of interesting people, through this, through your work. You also can learn a lot from the other people. You are not only a teacher but also a learner with the people. You need empathy, you need patience, you need motivation and you also need discipline. But it is a good job. You should be motivated in order to execute your task as a teacher. And you should be able to work together in a team. I think those are the basic requirements of a teachers job.
