You know, I'm really sick of our room mate. He never pays his rent. He always comes and begs for money. Yeah, he never has money, I don't think he has even a job. He is always loud. He's just...yeah, he's playing the guitar and he's always loud. At midnight, at two o'clock in the morning. Also, our landlord is already very angry because yeah he's just not getting his money. And it's like we are all...quite...unhappy with the situation at the moment. We should change something. We should look for a new room mate, shouldn't we? Somebody who is clean, somebody who pays his rent, somebody who is just more pleasant to live with. Yeah, we will write...something for the newspaper, will we?

Text 2

The hedgehog and I and a friend we live together in one flat. It is quite nice. We have a good community here. There is a good spirit amongst us. We share all the costs and we share all the work as well. There is a lot of stuff to do in a shared flat. You have the clean, you have to wash dishes, you have to keep a certain order, you have to pay your rent. We are very lucky to have a very patient and very friendly landlord. He allows us almost everything, we have parties, we have like meetings here. We can listen to loud music. It's really nice. We like each other, we are good friends, so it works quite well here. It could be much worse. So we are all quite happy to live together and share our flat, don't we?
