

Things around us

texts

text 1

This is our living room which we use to sit together. This is the sofa which serves us as an object to sit down. This is our living room table which we use to put down our glasses of wine, for example. This is our table which we use to sit together and have lunch or dinner together. These are the chairs which we use to sit down at the table. These are the sweets which we prefer to eat after lunch or after dinner.

text 2

This is the bathroom which serves in order to wash my body. These are toothbrushes. This is my toothbrush which I use in order to brush my teeth. This is a soap. Soap serves as in order to wash our hands. This is a razor. The razor which serves me in order to shave my face. This is the shower which we use for having a shower. This is the shampoo which we use to wash our hair.

text 3

Today I want to talk a bit about things in my room. This is the computer which I use for work. This is the bed which I sleep in. This is the lamp which I use to illuminate my room. This is the sofa which I use to sit down with my friends. This is the mobile phone which I use to call my friends. This is my desk which I use for work. This is my ebook-reader which I use to read. These are my keys which I use to open the door of my flat.